Men's Basketball Open North Central Conference Play This Saturday At Home With Nebraska-Omaha

The UNC men's basketball squad (3-3 overall) will begin play in the North Central Conference this Saturday afternoon in Butler-Hancock Hall at 4 p.m. against Nebraska-Omaha. UNC is riding a two-game winning streak coming into the contest, while UNO has won five of their last six contests. The Mavericks are 5-2 this season and went 1-1 over the weekend against a pair of Division I foes. The Mavs defeated San Jose State and lost to Wisconsin-Milwaukee.

Bears on the Radio/Internet
All UNC men's basketball games will be broadcast live on KFKA-AM (1310). Mike Rice, "The Voice of the Bears", will call all of the play-by-play action. Tune into KFKA 20 minutes prior to tip-off to listen Bear Warmup hosted by Rice. Fans outside the KFKA listening area have two other options to hear the radio broadcast of UNC basketball games. Those with access to the internet can log onto WWW.UNCBEARS.COM and click the Audio/Video button on the left side of the front page. Follow the easy instructions to listen to the game. Fans without internet access may call TEAMLINE at 1-800-846-4700 and specify the UNC Bears' code (1880). There is a fee for the TEAMLINE service.

Kaliszewski Continues To Sizzle
Junior guard Justin Kaliszewski lit up the nets against No. 3-ranked Florida Southern in the Southern Colorado Classic. Kaliszewski, a native of Littleton, Colo. (Colo. Mines), lit up the nets against No. 3-ranked Florida Southern.

All Times Mountain
Littleton, Colo., scored a season-best 30 points in the Bears upset of the Moccasins, 89-78. Kaliszewski made 16-of-18 free throws in the game and is shooting 94.3 percent (33-of-35) for the season.

All-Tournament Team Honors

Sophomore swingman Michael Morse and junior guard Justin Kaliszewski each earned All-Tournament team honors at the Chuck Stephens/Holiday Inn Classic in Pueblo over the weekend. Morse scored 18 points and grabbed 13 rebounds against No. 3-ranked Florida Southern. Morse then chipped in a team-high 19 points and was a perfect 5-of-5 from the free throw line in the triumph over Alaska-Fairbanks. Kaliszewski averaged 18 points a game in the Classic, which was boosted by his 30-point effort against Florida Southern.

Bears Win The Battle Of The Boards

UNC has won the rebounding battle in five of the six games it has played this season. The only game UNC did not win the rebounding battle was a 67-66 loss at home to Southern Colorado. The Bears hold a +5.3 rebounding margin over the opposition for the season.

Nolen Has Perfect Night

Sophomore guard Sean Nolen did not miss a shot on Saturday as the Bears defeated Alaska-Fairbanks in Pueblo. Nolen took five shots from the floor and drained them all. He then attempted two free throws and made both of those. He finished the evening with a career-high 15 points. Included in those five shots from the floor, were three shots from three-point territory.

Deja Vu All Over Again

The Bears will enter North Central Conference play this weekend and seem to be right where they were last year at this time. The Bears are riding a two-game winning streak into NCC play and both victories came at the Chuck Stephens/Holiday Inn Classic. Last season the Bears defeated Nebraska-Omaha to complete its longest winning streak of the season at three games. The Bears defeated the Mavericks, 99-68, in Omaha, but lost to the Mavs in Greeley, 80-75.

Austin Shines In Starting Role

Head coach Craig Rasmuson shook up his starting lineup over the weekend and inserted redshirt freshman Aaron Austin. Austin averaged 17.5 points per game over the weekend and the Bears were a perfect 2-0 on the scoreboard. Before starting, Austin was averaging 7.2 points per game.

Oh No, Not Again

All three of the Bears’ losses this season have come by five points or less. Two of the results have come down to the final shot of the game and both times, UNC’s final shot went awry. The Bears lost 11 of their 16 games last season by six points or less.

Coach Craig Rasmuson

Head coach Craig Rasmuson is in his third season at the helm of the UNC Bears and he thinks this will be the year the squad breaks out with an above .500 performance. Rasmuson has tallied a mark of 19-35 in his two-plus years in Greeley. “This program is growing in the right direction,” Rasmuson said. “We are still in the building process and earning the respect back for UNC basketball. UNC basketball had only one winning season in the '90s and the task at hand is to turn that around in the 21st century. Previous to UNC, Rasmuson spent five seasons as head coach at Lincoln Memorial University, an NCAA Division II school in Harriman, Tennessee. In 1998-99, the Railsplitters earned a share of the Gulf South Conference Eastern Division Championship by going 17-10 and 11-3 in league play. In 1997-98, he was named Gulf South Conference Co-Coach of the Year as his squad went 19-8 and headed to the league's postseason tourney for the first time in school history. During that year, LMU also made several appearances in the NCAA II South Regional Poll, moving as high as No. 4 late in the season. Rasmuson, 33, is a native of Victor, New York and is married to the former Jennifer Mitchell of Ypsilanti, Michigan. The couple has two children, Ella Shea (born 11/8/96) and Mitchell Craig (born 2/10/01).

UNC Blue and Gold Luncheons

Every Monday at noon, head coach Craig Rasmuson, along with all the in-season UNC coaches, will speak at the Blue & Gold Luncheon. Held every Monday at Old Chicago (2349 W. 29th Street), you can get a great lunch for $7 and hear all about UNC Athletics.
