Founded in 1880, the University of Southern California is the oldest and largest private research university in the western half of the United States.

The university enrolls about 30,000 students annually on two campuses, the 235-acre University Park campus near Exposition Park and the 50-acre Health Sciences campus, three miles to the northeast of downtown Los Angeles.

Some facts of significance about the university include the following:

- USC is a member of the Association of American Universities, a select group of 62 public and private universities in the U.S. and Canada that, together, perform about two-thirds of all federally funded academic research and development.
- Enrollment stands at 30,000, including 16,000 undergraduates and 14,000 graduate and professional students.
- In basic research, USC is nationally and internationally prominent. Currently, USC ranks among the top 10 private universities receiving federal funds for research and development support and in the top 20 among all universities.
- USC professor George A. Olah was the sole recipient of the 1994 Nobel Prize in chemistry.
- USC was TIME/Princeton Review College Guide’s “College of the Year 2000,” one of Newsweek/Kaplan College Guide’s “Hot Schools of 2001” and an Association of American Colleges and Universities “Leadership Institution of 2001.”
- USC has 39 faculty members or administrators who are members of prestigious national academies, including 10 in the National Academy of Sciences, 21 in the National Academy of Engineering, and 10 in the Institute of Medicine (two faculty are members of both NAS and NAE). Membership in these academies, created by Congress, is by election only and is based on distinguished and continuing achievements.
- The University is the home of 17 professional schools, in addition to the College of Letters, Arts and Sciences. These schools train specialists in fields ranging from medicine and law to engineering, music, communication and business.
- USC’s schools of Cinema-Television, Social Work and International Relations are among the oldest such schools in the country.
- USC is home to the USC/Norris Comprehensive Cancer Center, one of only 39 designated by the National Cancer Institute to lead the nation in cancer research, prevention and care.
- Among USC’s distinguished alumni are musicians Herb Alpert, Michael Tilson Thomas and Marilyn Horne; astronauts Neil Armstrong and Charles Bolden; columnist Art Buchwald; composer Frank Gehry and Jon Jerde; directors George Lucas, John Singleton, Ron Howard and Paul Mazursky; Gen. Norman Schwarzkopf; former U.S. Secretary of State Warren Christopher; retired California Supreme Court Chief Justice Malcolm Lucas and Associate Justice Joyce L. Kennard; former U.S. Ambassador to Australia, South Africa and the United Nations Edward Perkins; actors John Ritter, Tom Selleck, LeVar Burton and the late John Wayne; actresses Marlo Thomas and Ally Sheedy; symphony conductor Michael Tilson Thomas; and producers David L. Wolper and Barney Rosenzweig.

USC • Trojan Pride

DID YOU KNOW...that USC is one of the top four private universities in the western half of the United States?
• USC, Caltech, Stanford, and Rice are the only private universities west of Missouri boasting membership in the Association of American Universities, the premier teaching and research institutions of North America?
• USC is the oldest and largest private research university in the western half of the United States. The university was founded in 1880 with 53 students; today, USC enrolls about 30,000 students in its College of Letters, Arts and Sciences and 17 top-ranked professional schools.

DID YOU KNOW...that USC is among the nation's most highly selective universities?
• The freshman class that entered in 2002 is among the strongest in the country, boasting an average GPA of more than 3.96 and an average SAT score of 1335. The majority of entering freshmen come to USC from the top 10 percent of their high school graduating class.
• The 222 students entering USC's Thematic Option Honors Program boasted an average SAT score of 1450 and an aver-gage GPA of 4.15.
• USC was named one of nine “hot schools” in the country by the 2001 Newsweek/Kaplan How to Get into College Guide, signifying USC's popularity among the nation's best high school students.

DID YOU KNOW...each year since 2000, USC honors more than 100 Renaissance Scholars – seniors who graduate with a major and a minor in widely separated fields of study – with as many as 20 receiving $10,000 prizes for graduate study?

DID YOU KNOW...in 2002, USC launched its “Teaching Has No Boundaries” award which honors exemplary teachers who enhance learning by taking the experience beyond the classroom walls?

DID YOU KNOW...that Nobel laureate George A. Olah helped pave the way for high-octane gasoline and a number of advances in our daily life?
• Professor Olah, who has been at USC for more than two decades, has transformed the field of chemistry through his pio-nieving work with hydrocarbons, work which has led to less polluting gasoline, more effective oil refining and many modern drugs. For his research, Professor Olah received the 1994 Nobel Prize in chemistry.

DID YOU KNOW...that the Tomás Rivera Policy Institute – the nation’s premier Latino think tank – joined USC in fall 2003?

DID YOU KNOW...USC's Zilkha Neurogenetic Institute – which opened in April 2003 – is working toward cures and therapeutic strategies to attack debilitating disorders, such as Alzheimer’s, faced by millions worldwide?

DID YOU KNOW...since 1998, USC's Casden Institute for the Study of the Jewish Role in American Life has held seminars and hosted lectures that explore contemporary issues of Jewish life in the Western United States?

DID YOU KNOW...USC's Good Neighbors Campaign – made up of voluntary contributions from faculty and staff – has invested nearly $5 million since 1994 in neighborhood programs surrounding its University Park and Health Sciences campuses?

DID YOU KNOW...that USC is the largest private employer in the city of Los Angeles, and one of the largest in Southern California?
• USC’s employee base of 11,700 and operating budget of roughly $1.8 billion per year contributes some $3 billion each year in total impact on the Southern California economy, which in turn generates some 40,000 jobs outside the university.

DID YOU KNOW...that USC has more international alumni than any other university in the United States?

DID YOU KNOW...that USC’s recently completed fundraising campaign, “Building on Excellence,” raised $2.85 billion, surpassing its goal of $2 billion, and is the most successful campaign in the history of higher education?
• During its fundraising campaign, USC received five school-naming gifts – for the USC Leventhal School of Accounting, the USC Marshall School of Business, the USC Rossier School of Education, the USC Thornton School of Music, and the Keck School of Medicine of USC. At the time they were pledged, they were the largest gifts to schools of their kind in the history of American higher education.

DID YOU KNOW...that USC is the only university in the nation to have received four nine-figure gifts?
• Those gifts: $120 million from Walter Annenberg (1993) to establish the USC Annenberg Center for Communication; $113 million from biomedical industry entrepreneur Alfred Mann (1998) to establish the Alfred E. Mann Institute for Biomedical Engineering; $110 million from the W.M. Keck Foundation (1999) to USC's medical school, the largest gift to a medical school in history; and $100 million from the Annenberg Foundation (2002).

DID YOU KNOW...that the USC Leonard Davis School of Gerontology, founded in 1975, was the nation’s first school in this critical, emerging field?
• USC's Ethel Percy Andrus Gerontology Center is considered to be the nation’s premier program for studies of aging.

DID YOU KNOW...that USC physicians serve more than one million patients each year through the Health Sciences Campus and 14 affiliated hospitals?
• Three USC-affiliated hospitals are ranked by U.S. News & World Report as among the Top 10 in the nation in their specialty: Childrens Hospital Los Angeles, Doheny Eye Institute, and Rancho Los Amigos National Rehabilitation Center. More than 130 doctors of USC are listed in the book, “The Best Doctors in America,” published by Naifeh and Smith.

DID YOU KNOW...that the Southern California Earthquake Center is based at USC?
• The SCEC was established by the federal government in 1991 to coordinate geological research relating to earthquakes.
DID YOU KNOW...that the USC School of Engineering is a leading force in robotics and multimedia research?
• The USC Center for Robotics and Embedded Systems constitutes the second largest robotics effort in the country, with more than 20 faculty members, 60 students and over 60 robots. USC research focuses on the frontiers in robotics, including control of robot teams, reconfigurable robots, humanoid robots, and nanorobots.
• USC’s Integrated Media Systems Center is the only Engineering Research Center devoted to multimedia and the Internet to be funded by the National Science Foundation. It has demonstrated breakthrough technology for streaming high-definition digital video and multi-channel audio across the Internet.
• USC’s Information Sciences Institute (ISI) is a birthplace of the Internet, and, more recently, grid computing, and is recognized as one of the world’s leading research centers in the field of information technology. More than 300 researchers, graduate students and staff work on projects at the frontiers of computational science, including artificial intelligence, computer system design, computer security, and machine translation of human language.

DID YOU KNOW...that USC’s Museum Studies Program is the only master’s degree program of its kind in the western United States?
• Ninety-eight percent of the graduates from this program have been placed in professional museum careers.
• A three-year course of study leading to the Master of Arts in art history, the program is designed to meet the special training needs of students whose career goals are oriented toward professional work in art museums. A unique aspect of the program is that all students intern in a museum during their third year.

DID YOU KNOW...that the USC School of Architecture was the first architecture school in Southern California, and, until 1963, offered the only fully accredited degree program in the region?
• The USC School of Architecture has more regular faculty members who have been elected to the College of Fellows of the American Institute of Architects than any other school of architecture in the country.
• Three faculty members have been named Distinguished Professors of the Association of College Schools of Architecture.

DID YOU KNOW...that the USC School of Cinema-Television’s top-ranked film and television program is the oldest film school in the nation?
• CNTV’s Mark Jonathan Harris has won two Academy Awards for best documentary features; in 2001, for “Into the Arms of Strangers: Stories of the Kindertransport”; and in 1997, for “The Long-Way Home,” a film about the aftermath of the Holocaust.
• Distinguished alumni include Ron Howard, George Lucas, John Singleton and Robert Zemeckis.

DID YOU KNOW...that USC’s School of Fine Arts was the first fine arts school in the nation to offer a Master of Public Art Studies degree?
• The school’s acclaimed faculty artists are represented at the Metropolitan Museum of Art, Museum of Modern Art in New York, Whitney Museum of American Art, Art Institute of Chicago, National Gallery of Art, Smithsonian Institution, Los Angeles County Museum of Art and Victoria and Albert Museum in London.
• Distinguished alumni include Oscar-winning art director Henry Bumstead, artist Robert Therrien and ceramists Ken Price and the late Beatrice Wood.

DID YOU KNOW...that the USC Fisher Gallery is one of the few university museums accredited by the Association of American Museums?
• Established in 1939 by Elizabeth Holmes Fisher, the gallery houses her collection of Dutch and Flemish Old Master works and a fine collection of 19th-century American landscape paintings. In 1964, Armand Hammer made his first donation of Dutch and Flemish masterworks to the gallery.

DID YOU KNOW...that classical KUSC’s 24-hour broadcast day features a wide range of programs of classical music and arts information?
• As a partner in the arts in Southern California, the station has been responsible for bringing performances by local orchestras and chamber groups to both local and national audiences.
• In 2003, National Public Radio struck a partnership with the Classical Public Radio Network – a creation of KUSC and Colorado Public Radio – to provide round-the-clock classical music to public radio stations across the country.

DID YOU KNOW...that the USC Flora L. Thornton School of Music is one of the leading music schools in the nation?
• Founded in 1884, the Thornton School of Music is the oldest professional school at USC and Los Angeles’ oldest cultural institution.
• The Thornton School of Music, which consistently ranks in the top 1 percent of the nation’s music schools and conservatories, is the leading producer of live music performances in Southern California – with more than 500 concerts and recitals annually.
• It is a charter member of the Seven Springs Association, which includes the 11 finest music schools and conservatories in the United States.
• The school is the most prolific resource of prominent film composers in the world, including Jerry Goldsmith, James Horner, Thomas Newman and David Newman.
• A Thornton School graduate, Robert Thies, won the gold medal at the Second International Prokofiev Piano Competition in St. Petersburg, Russia, in 1995 – the only American to win a Russian international piano competition since Van Cliburn in 1958.

DID YOU KNOW...that the USC School of Theatre created the first American university theatrical company to be invited to perform at the prestigious Edinburgh Fringe Festival? Students and alumni of the School have been playing in the Festival to excellent reviews and high acclaim since 1967.
• Together with the USC Thornton School of Music, the School of Theatre has established a minor in musical theatre, making USC the only major university in the western United States to offer undergraduate training in this area.
In the center of the USC campus stands one of the most famous collegiate landmarks in the country: Tommy Trojan. Since being unveiled in 1930 for USC’s 50th jubilee, the statue of the bronzed Trojan warrior has served not only as a popular meeting place on campus, but as a symbol of the university’s fighting spirit.

Sculpted by Roger Noble Burnham (the idea for the statue was conceived by Harry Lee Martin and Dr. James D. McCoy), Tommy Trojan cost $10,000 to build. A $1 surcharge then on season football tickets helped pay for it.

The statue is a composite of many USC football players from the late 20s, most notably 1930 Rose Bowl Player of the Game Russ Saunders and All-American Erny Pinckert.

“Burnham made more than 100 oil paintings of various football players from our squad,” said Saunders, “and from them he selected the paintings of Pinckert and me. We put in a lot of hours posing, and the result you see is my head, chest and shoulders. The rest is all Erny.”

Inscribed on the statue’s base is “THE TROJAN” and the university’s seal, with the Latin motto “Palmam qui meruit ferat (Let him who deserves it bear away the palm).” Below the seal are inscribed the qualities of the ideal Trojan: “Faithful, Scholarly, Skillful, Courageous and Ambitious.”

The tradition of Tommy Trojan being painted blue and gold by UCLA pranksters was first recorded in October of 1941. Since then, Tommy has been “hit” often, but now USC maintenance crews cover him with plastic and canvas for protection during the week of the annual USC-UCLA football game.

And Tommy’s sword has been stolen so often that now, instead of replacing it each time with an expensive brass one, he is given a wooden one.

By the way, where did he get the name Tommy? Of that, no one is sure!

USC’s nickname, “Trojans,” originated in 1912. Up to that time the University of Southern California teams were called the Methodists or Wesleyans, nicknames which were not looked upon with favor by university officials.

So, Warren Bovard, director of athletics and son of university president Dr. George Bovard, asked Los Angeles Times sports editor Owen Bird to select an appropriate nickname.

“At this time, the athletes and coaches of the university were under terrific handicaps,” recalled Bird. “They were facing teams that were bigger and better-equipped, yet they had splendid fighting spirit. The name ‘Trojans’ fitted them.

“I came out with an article prior to a showdown between USC and Stanford in which I called attention to the fighting spirit of USC athletes and named them ‘Trojans.’ From then on, we used the term ‘Trojan’ all the time, and it stuck.

“The term ‘Trojan’ as applied to USC means to me that no matter what the situation, what the odds or what the conditions, the competition must be carried on to the end and those who strive must give all they have and never be weary in doing so.”

Before 1895, the official color of USC was gold. The official color of the College of Liberal Arts was cardinal. The college had its own official color because it was the largest academic unit in the University. In 1895, both colors were adopted as USC’s official colors.
The Trojan Marching Band — known as “The Spirit of Troy” — is perhaps the most dynamic and innovative collegiate band in the nation. Named among the 8 best marching bands in the country by USA Today, the band is one of the most visible public relations tools of the University.

Established in 1880, the band has played for 10 Presidents (including Ronald Reagan, just prior to his 1984 inauguration), and has appeared in 5 movies (including “Hello Dolly”), plus numerous commercials and television shows (including the 1978 Academy Awards). The band even recorded the title track of the rock group Fleetwood Mac’s popular 1979 album, “Tusk,” and has produced several records of its own music (featuring the well-known “Conquest” and “Fight On”).

Among the many famous musicians who have played in the band was Herb Alpert of the Tijuana Brass (he was in the cornet section). And among the various guest artists who have appeared with the band were Henry Mancini, Quincy Jones, Chuck Mangione, Leonard Bernstein, Diana Ross, Neil Diamond, John Wayne, and Bozo the Clown (Larry Harmon).

The band marches upwards of 80 miles a year while traveling across the land supporting almost every USC athletic team. A typical football halftime show by the band (with precision drills, special musical charts and dance routines) takes more than 4,000 work hours to prepare. The band also frequently appears at many professional sport-ING EVENTS THROUGHOUT SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA. APPROXIMATELY 11 PERCENT OF ITS MEMBERS ARE MUSIC MAJORS, WITH ALMOST EVERY SCHOOL AND DEPARTMENT REPRESENTED AMONG THE BALANCE.

Now 270-plus members strong, the Trojan Marching Band has tripled in size since Dr. Arthur C. Bartner became its director in 1969 (he is assisted by arranger Tony Fox). A graduate of Michigan, Bartner brought with him a creative approach and the unique, contemporary “drive-it” style of marching.

Nationally-renowned, Bartner directed the 800-member 1984 Olympic All-American College Marching Band (125 bandsmen were from USC) which played in the opening and closing ceremonies at the Games. Interestingly, it was the second time a Trojan musical group was involved with the Olympics, as the USC band formed the 10th Olympic Braid in the 1932 Los Angeles Games.

Bartner was also Director of Bands for the Japan Bowl in Tokyo and directs the All-American College Marching Band at Disneyland. In the summer of 1986, he and 40 band members were part of the ceremonies of Liberty Weekend at the refurbished Statue of Liberty. In the spring of 1988, he brought the band to Australia to perform at festivities for that country’s bicentennial and at World Expo 88.

The Trojan Marching Band is complemented by the USC Silks (tall flags), plus the famous USC Song Leaders — who were ranked No. 1 in the nation by Sports Illustrated — and Yell Leaders.

SCHOOL SONGS

“FIGHT ON”

Fight On for ol’ SC
Our men Fight On to victory.
Our Alma Mater dear, looks up to you
Fight On and win
For ol’ SC
Fight On to victory
Fight On!

The music for USC’s fight song, “Fight On,” was composed in 1922 by USC dental student Milo Sweet (with lyrics by Sweet and Glen Grant) as an entry in a Trojan spirit contest. In addition to inspiring generations of Trojan fans and players, the song has been used in numerous recordings and movies. Legend has it that during World War II in the Pacific, an American task force attacked an island held by the Japanese. As the Americans stormed the beach, “Fight On” blared from the deck of one of the transports. The U.S. men let out a tremendous roar and eventually won the island.

“CONQUEST”

USC’s other famous song is the regal processional march, “Conquest,” by Alfred Newman. This stirring battle cry, from Newman’s score to the 1947 motion picture classic “Captain from Castile,” has become synonymous with the championship tradition of USC since the Trojans adopted it in 1950. Newman, a legendary composer of film music, was the musical director of Twentieth Century-Fox Studios.

“ALL HAIL”

All hail to Alma Mater,
To thy glory we sing;
All hail to Southern California,
Loud let thy praises ring;
Where Western sky meets Western sea
Our college stands in majesty.
Sing our love to Alma Mater,
Hail, all hail to thee.

The words and music to USC’s alma mater, “All Hail,” were composed in the early 1920s by Al Wesson, Troy’s longtime sports information director (1928-1942). He wrote the song as a student member of the Trojan Marching Band for the finale of a 1923 campus show.

USC has a proud athletic heritage — and with good reason. Arguably, Troy could be regarded as the "Collegiate Athletic Program of the 20th Century." Consider:

- Trojan teams have won more national championships, 79 men’s (including a national-best 71 NCAA titles) and 18 women’s, than all but 2 other universities;
- The Trojans won at least 1 national team title in 26 consecutive years (1959-60 to 1984-85);
- USC has won the National College All-Sports Championship — an annual ranking by USA Today (previously the Knoxville Journal) of the country’s top men’s athletic programs — 6 times since its inception in 1971;
- USC also won the inaugural 2001-02 Lexus Gauntlet Trophy, a year-long all-sports competition between Troy and crosstown rival UCLA;
- Trojan men athletes have won more individual NCAA titles (290) than those from any other school in the nation (the Women of Troy have brought home another 38 individual NCAA crowns);
- Troy has also established a stellar reputation and a long tradition of nurturing Olympic athletes. Since 1904, 339 Trojan athletes have competed in the Games, taking home 104 gold medals (with at least 1 gold in every summer Olympics since 1912), 59 silver and 54 bronze.
- Three Trojans have won the prestigious Sullivan Award as the top amateur athlete in America: diver Sammy Lee (1953), shot putter Parry O’Brien (1959) and swimmer John Naber (1977).
- Two Women of Troy athletes have won the Honda-Broderick Cup as the top collegiate woman athlete of the year: Cheryl Miller (1983-84) and Angela Williams (2001-02). And Trojan women have won 7 Honda Awards, as the top female athlete in their sport.

Along with the great accomplishments on the playing fields, USC student-athletes have received 49 NCAA Postgraduate Scholarships, in the Top 10 among all schools. In addition, USC has had 26 first team Academic All-Americans and 3 athletes who were Rhodes Scholars.

Here’s a closer look at the history of each of the 19 sports which USC offers on the intercollegiate level:

FOOTBALL — Since starting football in 1888, USC has amassed an impressive all-time won-loss record of 695-296-54 (a .709 winning percentage). A December 1998 SPORT magazine ranking listed USC as the No. 4 all-time college football program of the 20th century.

USC’s record against Pac-10 opponents is a stellar 360-152-29 (.692). Since 1959, the Trojans have won the conference championship 14 times and tied for the title on 6 other occasions.

USC has the nation’s sixth best bowl winning percentage (.634) among the 62 schools which have made at least 10 bowl appearances and its 28 Rose Bowl appearances is an all-time best. Troy’s overall bowl mark is 26-15, including 20-8 in the Pasadena New Year’s Day classic. The Trojans were a bowl participant every year they were eligible from 1972 to 1990.

Think about college football and USC’s tailback in the I-formation, one of the most glamorous positions in the sport, immediately comes to mind. Four Trojan tailbacks have won the coveted Heisman Trophy as college football’s outstanding player: Mike Garrett in 1965, O.J. Simpson in 1968, Charles White in 1979 and Marcus Allen in 1981. Other standout tailbacks have included Clarence Davis, Anthony Davis and Ricky Bell. And in 2002, Carson Palmer became the first USC quarterback to win the Heisman.

The Trojans have had other prominent award winners. Offensive tackle Ron Yary won the Outland Trophy in 1967, offensive guard Brad Budde won the Lombardi Award in 1979, safety Mark Carrier won the Thorpe Award in 1989 and linebacker Chris Claiborne won the Butkus Award in 1998. USC players have been named first team All-American 124 times, with 41 consensus selections and 22 unanimous choices.

Many of those players have led USC to 8 national championships in football. Legendary coach Howard Jones (1925-40) guided Troy to 3 of those titles (1928-31-32). John McKay (1960-75) was responsible for 4 national championship teams (1962-67-72-74). John Robinson (1976-82), who captured 1 title (1978) in his first tenure, returned to Troy in 1993 and led USC to 3 more bowl wins. Pete Carroll was named head coach in 2001 and led Troy to a win in the 2003 Orange Bowl.

Scores of Trojans have gone on to successful NFL careers (there have been 62 first round picks, with a record 5 No. 1 selections), including such greats as Frank Gifford, Willie Wood, Lynn Swann, Anthony Munoz, Ronnie Lott, Junior Seau, Keyshawn Johnson, Bruce Matthews, Tony Boselli, Willie McGinest and Jason Sehorn.

BASEBALL — No school in the country can match the long tradition USC has in baseball. With 12 national championships in the sport, Troy is far and away the leader in that category (no other school has more than 5).

Since starting baseball in 1924, the Trojans have compiled a record of 2,197-1,061-15 (.674) against college opponents, and have captured outright or tied for 38 conference championships.

The incomparable Rod Dedeaux coached USC from 1942-86, leading the school to 11 of its NCAA crowns, including 5 straight from 1970-74 (no other school has strung together more than two in a row).

Trojans have been named first team All-American 41 times, with Jay Roundy, Pat Harrison and Bill Bordley being 2-time selections. Mark Prior was the 2001 national Player of the Year.

USC boasts many successful major leaguers such as Ron Fairly, Don Buford, Tom Seaver, Dave Kingman, Fred Lynn, Roy Smalley, Steve Kemp, Mark McGwire, Randy Johnson, Bret Boone, Jeff Cirillo, Barry Zito, Geoff Jenkins, Aaron Boone, Jacque Jones and Mark Prior. In all, 89 Trojans have gone on to play in the major leagues and scores more in the minors.

Dedeaux compiled a 45-year collegiate record of 1,332-571-11 (.699), making him the then-winningest coach in collegiate baseball history. He resigned after the 1986 season to become USC’s director of baseball and was replaced by Mike Gillespie, whose 1998 squad won the College World Series while finishing as the CWS runnerup in 1995 and also advancing to Omaha in 2000 and 2001 (his 1988, 1989, 1990, 1991, 1993, 1994, 1996, 1997, 1999 and 2002 teams were NCAA regional participants).

MEN’S BASKETBALL — Only about 4 dozen schools have more than 1,000 victories in college basketball, and USC is one of them. Since starting basketball in 1907, the Trojans have compiled a record of 1,344-969 (.581), winning 14 league championships.

Bill Sharman, John Rudometkin, John Block, Paul Westphal, Gus Williams, Harold Miner and Sam Clancy are a few of USC’s All-American selections. Overall, Trojans have earned All-American honors 22 times. Four Trojan men, Sharman, Jack Gardner, Alex Hannum and coach Sam Barry, are in the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame.

Barry (1930-41, 1945-50) has the winningest record among USC basketball coaches, 260-138 (.653). Following him are Forrest Twogood (1951-66) at 255-180 (.586) and Bob Boyd (1967-79) at 216-131 (.622).

George Raveling, an assistant coach for the 1984 and 1988 U.S. Olympic teams, took over the coaching helm in 1986-87 and led Troy into the postseason playoffs 4 times. Henry Bibby was named head coach midway through the 1996 season and has led the Trojans into the NCAA tourney 3 times (in 1997, 2001’s Elite Eight and 2002) and the NIT in 1999.

WOMEN’S BASKETBALL — After improving steadily, USC first reached the pinnacle of success in women’s basketball in 1983 and the Trojans have been at or near the top almost ever since, winning 2 national championships and playing in 4 Final Fours.

USC’s team became established when Linda Sharp took over as coach in 1977. By 1981, Troy had reached the Final Four. In 1983, Cheryl Miller joined Cynthia Cooper and twins Pam and Paula McGhee to give the Trojans a formidable front line that led the squad to its first national championship. The next year, the team won the national title again. USC advanced to the NCAA title game in 1986.

Miller finished her career in 1986 as the Trojans’ all-time leading scorer and rebounder. She also won her third straight Naismith Award as the outstanding player in college basketball. She returned as coach of her alma mater in 1994 and led USC to a Pac-10 title and 2 NCAA playoff appearances. She was inducted into the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in 1995. Chris Gobrecht, a former USC player and a 2-time Pac-10 Coach of the Year while at Washington, took over as coach prior to the 1998 season. Her team played in the 2000 and 2002 WNIT.

The Women of Troy have made the NCAA tourney 6 of the past 13 years, including advancing to the regionals 3 of the last 12 seasons. Lisa Leslie, who became an Olympic and pro star, won the Naismith Award in 1994 (she was the MVP of the first WNBA All-Star Game). Tina Thompson was the No. 1 pick in the 1997 WNBA draft. Cooper was twice an Olympian and WNBA MVP.

MEN’S GOLF — USC has one of the most successful golf programs in the nation, having produced 3 NCAA individual champions (Scott Simpson in 1976 and 1977, and Ron Commins in 1981), 19 Pac-10 individual champs, 20 All-American first teamers and numerous players who have gone on to successful professional careers, including $1 million winners like Al “Mr. 59” Geiberger, Dave Stockton, Craig Stadler and Scott Simpson. Troy has also been dominant in the Pac-10, winning 17 of the 43 conference championships to date.

Legendary coach Stan Wood (1955-79) compiled a career record of 462-37 (.926) and won 14 conference championships. He also guided the Trojans to an NCAA record 51 consecutive dual match wins from 1956-59. His teams finished third in the NCAA tourney 6 times.

Under coach Randy Lein (1984-92), USC continued its success, winning the conference championship in 1986. The 1991 Trojans finished seventh at the NCAAs. U.S. Amateur champion Sam Randolph, who finished as low amateur at the prestigious Masters golf tournament in 1985 and 1986, was a first team All-American for the third straight year in 1986 and was named college golf’s Player of the Year.

Former team captain Jim Empey took over as coach in 1993. Kurt Schuette became coach in 1995 and guided the Trojans to an impressive fifth place finish at the NCAA tourney that season. Troy’s best placing in 18 years, and then ninth in 1996 and 14th in both 1997 and 2003. His 2001 squad won the Pac-10 title, USC’s first since 1986, and Troy repeated in 2002. Kevin Stadler, Craig’s son, was the 2002 Pac-10 Golfer of the Year (USC’s first honoree since 1986).

WOMEN’S GOLF — The USC women’s golf team is one of college’s finest, as witnessed by the program’s first-ever NCAA team title in 2003. USC also has had second, third, fourth (twice), fifth, seventh (3 times), ninth and 14th place finishes at the NCAA Championships in the past 18 years. The Women of Troy won the Pac-10 tourney in 1989 and the 1999 NCAA West Regional. Cathy Bright led USC to 5 Top 10 NCAA finishes in her 12 years as head coach (1982-93). Former Trojan player Renee (Mack) Baumgartner returned as head coach in 1994 and led USC to second place at the NCAAs in her first year. Andrea Gaston took over in 1997 (with men’s coach Kurt Schuette serving as Director of Golf). Jennifer Rosales won the 1998 NCAA individual title as a freshman (she tied for fourth in 1999) and Mikaela Parmlid won as a senior in 2003. Other top individuals have included professionals Marta Figueras-Dotti, Denise Strebig, Kim Saiki, Tracy Nakamura, Jill McGill (the 1993 U.S. Amateur champion), Heidi Voorhees (the 1993 U.S. Amateur medalist), Jennifer Biehn (the 1994 Pac-10 champ), Candie Kung (the 2000 Pac-10 champ) and Becky Lucidi (the 2002 U.S. Amateur and 2003 Mexican Amateur champion).

WOMEN’S ROWING — The women’s rowing team has been active since the early 1970s, but scholarship opportunities were first awarded in 1998 and USC has emerged as one of the nation’s top programs. The varsity, junior varsity and novice eight teams train all year long for regattas from coast to coast. George Jenkins guided USC to national prominence during his 9 years as head coach (1994-2002). Kelly Babraj took over as head coach for the 2003 season, with husband Zenon Babraj serving as director of rowing.

At the 1998 NCAA meet, the Women of Troy rowers captured their first-ever national championship race (the varsity fours).

Isabelle Harvey, the 1998 Pac-10 Player of the Year, was USC’s first All-American first teamer (in 2000).

MEN’S SWIMMING & DIVING — The type of dominance USC has had in this sport was best exemplified by Troy’s performance in the 1976 Olympic Games, when Trojan swimmers won more golds and more total medals than any country in swimming except the United States.

Over the years, USC men’s swimmers have made Olympic teams 110 times, winning 36 gold, 21 silver and 16 bronze medals. Gold medal winners have included Lenny Krayzelburg, John Naber, Bruce Furniss and Murray Rose.

Since beginning swimming in 1929, the Trojans have captured 9 NCAA championships, all under coach Peter Daland, who retired in 1992 after 35 years at Troy. USC swimmers and divers have won 108 NCAA meet individual and relay titles (including Erik Vendt, who won 5 individual titles in the 2001, 2002 and 2003 meets) and have earned All-American honors an amazing 546 times. Under Daland, USC won 17 Pac-10 championships and amassed an impressive dual meet record of 318-31-1 (.917). Three of his last 6 squads had runner-up finishes at the NCAA meet.

Four-time U.S. Olympic coach Mark Schubert, winner of 2 NCAA titles with the Texas women, succeeded Daland. He also serves as the head coach of the Women of Troy. His men’s teams have placed fourth, fifth (3 times), sixth (4 times), seventh and 10th at the NCAAs.

WOMEN’S SWIMMING & DIVING — USC has likewise built a successful swimming program on the women’s side. In fact, the Women of Troy have finished in the top 10 nationally 22 of the last 27 years — including winning the NCAA title in 1997 — and have produced 213 All-Americans in that span. They have won conference championships in 1979, 1980, 1982 and 1985.

Among USC’s more famous women’s swimmers are Michelle Ford, Sue Habernigg, Cynthia Woodhead, Sue Hinderaker, Debbie Rudd, Kristine Quance (she won 3 events at the 1994 NCAA meet as the Women of Troy placed sixth, 3 more to be the high point scorer at the 1996 meet as USC finished fifth and 2 at the 1997 meet), Lindsay Benko (who won 2 events in 1996, 2 more in 1997 and 1 in 1999) and diver Blythe Hartley (she won 2 events at the 2002 NCAAs).

MEN’S TENNIS — USC’s men’s tennis legacy has produced numerous national titlists, including 16 team champions (second most in the country), 13 singles champions (tied for second most in the country), and 20 doubles champs (more than any other school). Cecil Mamiit won the 1996 NCAA singles crown as a freshman.

George Toley (1954-80) guided the Trojans for 26 years before resigning during the 1980 season. His career record was 430-92-4 (.821) with 10 NCAA titles. Dick Leach succeeded Toley and posted a 535-133 (.801) mark in 23 years. His 1991, 1993, 1994 and 2002 teams won the NCAA tourney (his 2002 No. 11-seeded Cinderella team was the lowest seed ever to win the NCAA title and did so a month after Leach announced his retirement) and 8 of his other teams finished fourth or better. He was succeeded by ex-Pepperdine, Fresno State and Long Beach State coach Peter Smith for the 2003 season.

Overall, USC players have been named to All-American teams 136 times, with a many also enjoying successful pro careers, including Stan Smith, Bob Lutz, Raul Ramirez and Dennis Ralston.

WOMEN’S TENNIS — The most successful women’s program at USC, in terms of national titles, is the tennis team. The Women of Troy have won 7 national championships. Those national crowns all came under Dave Borelli, who coached USC from 1974 to 1988. In duals, Borelli’s record was phenomenal: his teams went 300-43 (.875).

Five times Trojans have won national singles titles, along with 1
Prominent USC stars have included Barbara Hallquist, Diane Desfor, Lea Antonopolis, Leslie Allen, Sheila McInerney, Stacy Margolin, Trey Lewis, the Fernandez sisters, Kelly Henry, Beth Herr, Caroline Kuhlman, Trisha Laux and Jewel Peterson.

MEN’S TRACK & FIELD — The Trojans have won an unprecedented 26 NCAA titles (including 9 straight, 1935-43) in the 82-year history of NCAA outdoor track, plus 2 indoor NCAA titles and 34 Pacific Coast or Pac-10 crowns, including a string of 15 straight (1936-55). They have had 39 unbeaten and untied seasons, including a string of 16 in a row (1946-61). Since starting track and field in 1900, USC has compiled a dual-meet record of 410-113-4 (.782).

Outstanding coaches include Dean Cromwell (1909-48), who won a record 12 NCAA titles and had a dual meet mark of 109-48-1; Jess Mortensen, who never lost a dual meet (64-0) in 11 years and won 7 NCAA titles; and Vern Wolfe, who retired after the 1984 season with 7 national titles and a dual meet record of 106-17-1 (.859). Jim Bush, who won 5 NCAA titles while at crosstown rival UCLA, became USC’s head coach in 1991. His 1992 Trojans finished third at the NCAAAs with only a 6-man team. Ron Allice, who won 11 state titles at Long Beach City College, took over the combined men’s and women’s programs in 1995 (the men were fourth at the 1995 NCAA meet, 10th in 1996, third in 1997 while winning the Pac-10 title, seventh in 1998, fifth in 1999 while winning the Pac-10 crown, tied for seventh in 2000 while winning the Pac-10 title, tied for 12th in 2001, tied for 11th in 2002 and was third in 2003 while winning the Pac-10 title).

Fifty-nine USC tracksters have won 86 places on U.S. Olympic teams over the years. Trojans have won 25 individual Olympic titles and shared in 8 relay wins. Gold medal winners include long jumper Randy Williams, pole vaulter Bob Seagren, sprinter Charles Paddock and quartermiler Quincy Watts.

Since 1912, 61 USC trackmen have equalled or bettered world records, and there have been 110 NCAA individual or relay winners from Troy—including 2003 NCAA champs Ryan Wilson (high hurdles), Julian Kapek (long jump) and Dawid Jaworsky (high jump).

The Trojans also have had a long history of successful distance running, including 9 Olympians and NCAA champions Julio Marin and Ole Oleson.

WOMEN’S TRACK & FIELD, CROSS COUNTRY — The women’s track program at USC has developed into one of the nation’s finest. The Trojans have placed in the Top 10 of the NCAA Championships 10 times, including winning the program’s first-ever NCAA title in 2001. The Women of Troy also finished third in 1987, seventh in 1996 (while winning the Pac-10 title), fifth in 1998, third in 1999 (just 4 points from first place), second in 2000 (again just 4 points out of first place) and third in 2002.

The women’s track and field heritage begins with Sherry Calvert, the former head coach. Calvert, a 4-time All-American javelin thrower at USC who participated in the 1972 and 1976 Olympics, started the program as an undergraduate and coached through 1983. Fred LaPlante succeeded her from 1984 through 1988. Barbara Edmonson was coach in 1992 through 1994. In 1995, Ron Allice took over as the combined men’s and women’s coach.

Troy has had many other successful track and field athletes. Patty Van Wolvelaere won a pair of national titles in the 100-meter hurdles. Kerry Bell was an All-American heptathlete for 3 years. 1988 NCAA heptathlon champion Wendy Brown and Yvette Bates set world bests in the triple jump during their USC careers. Ashley Selman won the 1990 NCAA javelin title. Angela Williams became the first athlete, male or female, at any level to win 4 consecutive NCAA 100-meter dashes when she did so in 1999, 2000, 2001 and 2002. Natasha Danvers won the 2000 NCAA 400-meter intermediate hurdles. The Women of Troy won the NCAA 1600-meter relay in 1987 and the 400-meter relay in 2000. Brigita Langerholc took the 800 meters and Inga Stasiulionyte captured the javelin, both in the 2001 NCAAAs. Natasha Mayers won the NCAA 200 meters in 2002.

The Women of Troy also compete in cross country in the fall under coach Tom Walsh.
MEN'S VOLLEYBALL —
Final Four appearances have become commonplace for the USC men’s volleyball team, which has made 11 trips there since scholarships were first awarded by Troy in the sport in 1977. The Trojans have won 4 NCAA titles (1977, 1980, 1988 and 1990) and have finished second on 6 other occasions (1979-81-85-86-87-91).

Ernie Hix, who retired as head coach after the 1981 season, turned USC into one of the top volleyball powers in the nation. Hix’s 8-year record was an impressive 146-47 (.756) with 2 national crowns.

Twenty-four Trojans have played on the U.S. National team and USC volleyballers have been named first team All-Americans 27 times. In the 1984 Olympics, Steve Timmons, Dusty Dvorak and Pat Powers all helped lead the United States to its first gold medal ever in the sport, while Timmons repeated with the 1988 U.S. squad. Timmons, Bryan Ivie, Nick Becker and Dan Greenbaum won bronze medals with the U.S. in 1992. Tim Hovland, Celso Kalache, Adam Johnson, former coach Bob Yoder (a 3-time All-American who coached Troy to an NCAA title in 1988), Donald Suxho and Brook Billings also are key figures in USC’s volleyball heritage. Jim McLaughlin took over for Yoder in 1990 and led Troy to an NCAA title in his initial year. Powers became head coach in 1997 and Turhan Douglas succeeded him in 2003.

WOMEN’S VOLLEYBALL —
USC has won 5 national crowns in women’s volleyball, the first 4 under coach Chuck Erbe. Erbe, who dominated the sport during his 12-year USC coaching tenure which began in 1976, posted a career record of 310-121-3 (.718). He coached the 1976, 1977 and 1980 AIAW champions and the 1981 NCAA titlists. His 1976 team registered the first perfect season (38-0) in women’s volleyball history.

Lisa Love, who coached at Texas-Arlington for 7 years, took over for Erbe in 1989 and guided USC into the NCAAAs in 9 of her 10 seasons before retiring after the 1998 season. Jerritt Elliott served as interim head coach in 1999 and 2000, guiding the 2000 club to the NCAA Final Four. Mick Haley, head coach of the 2000 U.S. women’s Olympic team who won 2 national crowns in the 1980s while at Texas, took over in 2001 and advanced to that season’s NCAA regional final. Then, in 2002, his team won the NCAA crown.

In 1978, Debbie Green won the prestigious Broderick Award in volleyball. Some 32 Trojans have been named All-American and 12 have been members of the U.S. Olympic team (including Green, Sue Woodstra, Paula Weishoff, Carolyn Becker and Kim Ruddins).

MEN'S WATER POLO —
Since starting water polo in 1922, the Trojans have compiled an 912-483-7 (.653) record, winning 12 conference championships along the way.

Seventeen Trojan poloists have participated in the Olympics and 127 have made various All-American teams. Some of the more prominent names in USC water polo history are Ron Severa, Wally Wolf, Greg Fults, Zach Stimson, Craig Furniss, Charles Harris, Robert Lynn, Drew Netherton, Hrvoje Cizmic, Marko Zagar, Simon Cimerman, Marko Pintaric, George Csaszar and Pedraj Damjanov.

WOMEN’S WATER POLO —
USC’s newest sport, the women’s water polo team began play in 1995 under head coach Jovan Vavic. In 1999, in just their fifth year of existence, the Women of Troy—led by All-American and 2000 U.S. Olympic goalie Bernice Orwig—won the national championship in an exciting 5-overtime sudden death victory over Stanford. USC then was second in the national tourney in 2000. Before that, USC was third in the 1995 Division II tourney, then seventh in the 1997 national championship and fifth in 1998.

Besides Orwig, other top players have included Aniko Pelle (the 2000 National Player of the Year), Nina Wengst, Olympian Sofia Konoukh, Katrin Dierolf and Moriah Van Norman.
The Pacific-10 Conference — which combines 10 of the finest academic institutions in the nation — annually demonstrates it is the “Conference of Champions,” thus continuing to live up to its billing as having the strongest overall intercollegiate athletic league in the country.

Pac-10 members have now won 243 NCAA men’s team championships, far and away more than any other conference (the Big Ten is next with 183), and 83 women’s crowns, also more than any league (the Southeastern Conference is next with 56).

Pac-10 men’s teams have won at least 4 NCAA team titles 24 of the last 33 years, a feat unprecedented in intercollegiate athletics. The NCAA men’s team championships have come at a phenomenal rate—15 basketball titles, more than any other conference; 17 of the last 37, and 24 overall, baseball titles; 19 of the last 43, and an incredible 45 titles overall, in outdoor track and field; 20 of the last 39 in swimming and diving; 37 of the last 43 (48 overall) in tennis; 29 of the last 44 in water polo; and 23 of the last 34 in volleyball. Pac-10 men have also claimed an incredible 1,074 NCAA individual crowns.

On the women’s side, the story is the same. Since the NCAA began conducting women’s championships 21 years ago, Pac-10 members have claimed 4 titles in a single season on 14 occasions. Included in this are 14 of 23 tennis crowns, 16 of 22 softball championships, 8 of the last 13 volleyball titles, 10 of the last 14 trophies in golf and 8 of the last 14 titles in swimming and diving. Plus, the 407 NCAA individual titles lead all leagues.

The roots of the Pacific-10 Conference go back 86 years. On Dec. 2, 1915, the Pacific Coast Conference was founded at a meeting at the Oregon Hotel in Portland, Oregon. Original membership consisted of 4 schools — University of California, University of Washington, University of Oregon, and Oregon State College (now Oregon State University). All are still charter members of the Conference.

Pacific Coast Conference play began in 1916. One year later, Washington State College (now Washington State University) was accepted into the PCC, and Stanford University joined in 1918.

In 1922, the PCC expanded to 8 teams with the admission of the University of Southern California and the University of Idaho. Montana joined the conference in 1924 and in 1928 the PCC grew to 10 members with the addition of UCLA.

The Pacific Coast Conference competed as a 10-team league until 1950, with the exception of 1943-1945 when World War II somewhat curtailed intercollegiate competition. In 1950, Montana resigned from the conference to join the Mountain States Conference. The PCC continued as a 9-team conference through 1958.

In 1959, the PCC was dissolved and a new conference was formed called the Athletic Association of Western Universities. Original AAWU membership consisted of California, Stanford, USC, UCLA, and Washington. Washington State became a member in 1962, with Oregon and Oregon State joining in 1964. In 1968, the name Pacific-8 Conference was adopted.

Ten years later, on July 1, 1978, the University of Arizona and Arizona State University were admitted and the Pacific-10 Conference became a reality. In 1986-87, the Pacific-10 Conference took on a new look, expanding to include 10 women’s teams.

Currently, the Pac-10 sponsors 11 men’s and 11 women’s sports, while Conference members are part of the Mountain Pacific Sports Federation (MPSF) in 4 additional men’s sports and 2 other women’s sports.

Edwin N. Atherton was named the Conference’s first Commissioner in 1940. He was succeeded by Victor O. Schmidt (1944), Thomas J. Hamilton (1959), Wiles Hallock (1971) and current Commissioner Thomas C. Hansen in 1983.

The Pac-10 offices are located 25 miles east of San Francisco in Walnut Creek, Calif.
USC is as proud of its student-athletes’ achievements in the classroom as on the playing field. After all, the Trojans not only are third in the nation in the number of national team championships (78 by the men and 18 by the women), but rank in the Top 10 in the number of NCAA post-graduate scholarship recipients (49, including 20 football players).

Also, USC athletics has had 3 Rhodes Scholars (quarterback Pat Haden, swimmer Desmond Koh and quarterback James O’Toole), 26 first team Academic All-Americans (including 22 footballers, tops among Pac-10 schools and sixth best in the nation), 8 winners of the prestigious NCAA Today’s Top Six scholar award, 12 National Football Foundation Scholar-Athletes, recipients of the NCAA Silver Anniversary Award, a Luce Scholar (swimmer Dennis Scannell), a NCAA Women’s Enhancement Program Post-Graduate Scholar (soccer player Laura Servis), a NCAA Ethnic-Minority Enhancement Program Post-Graduate Scholar (footballer Dong Kuo) and 2 USC valedictorians (water poloist Craig Furniss and volleyballer Alaina Kipps). In 1988, Haden was inducted into the charter 6-member class of the GTE Academic All-American Hall of Fame and baseball star Don Buford Jr. won the first-ever Woody Hayes Academic All-American Award presented by the Columbus Touchdown Club to the top NCAA Division I male student-athlete (footballer John Jackson won the award in 1990 and volleyballer Katie Haller won the women’s award in 1994). Jackson was also named a winner of the first-ever NACDA/Disney Award Winners.

The Nov. 1994 issue of The Sporting News examined the relative academic strength of the nation’s top 25 football teams and found USC’s players ranked first in high school GPA, sixth in SAT scores and third in ACT scores.

USC has long dominated the world of intercollegiate athletics. In fact, it could be argued that Troy was the "Collegiate Athletic Program of the 20th Century."

Trojan men's teams are tops in the nation in NCAA championships with 71 — more than any other university. And the football team has been voted national champions eight times.

USC has won the National Collegiate All-Sports Championship—an annual ranking by USA Today (previously The Knoxville Journal) of the country's top men's athletic programs — six times (1971-72, 74-75, 77-78) since its inception in 1971.

USC's women are also a force, with 18 national team titles, all since 1976.

From 1959-60 to 1984-85, USC put together an amazing streak. In each of those 26 years, at least one Trojan team won a national championship (including five crowns in both 1962-63 and 1976-77).

Here's a list with the coaches of the winning teams.
